Construction and engineering group

We provide training to help our contacts keep up to date with developments in case law and legislation and to deal with particular issues they may be facing. As well as scheduled seminars we are able to provide bespoke training programmes and "one off" sessions to meet our contacts' needs. Topics and the style / format of delivery can be tailored to meet specific requirements but, by way of example, could include:

- Termination - timescales, grounds and what to serve and by when
- Payment notices under the Construction Act - the right information, the right person and at the right time
- Top ten issues to be aware of when negotiating appointments and / or building contracts
- Getting your LAD figure right
- Construction insurance - do you need them all?
- Caps and limitations on liability - what do they actually mean?
- Help! My contractor has gone bust - things to think about
- Defective design, construction and / or advice - what to do next
- Trespass and nuisance - issues to look out for when developing land
- Adjudication tactics
- Successfully dealing with delay and claims for EOTs
- Cost effective dispute resolution - choosing the right processes
- Adjudication costs - how to recover them
- Notices as conditions precedent to claims for time and money
- Employer payment security - is it necessary and what are the options?
- Off-site manufacturing - benefits, pitfalls and practical solutions

If you would like to discuss the possibility of arranging a session on any of the topics listed or perhaps one not on this list please don't hesitate to get in touch with one of the contacts listed below.
